The hearing shall be conducted in English. The parties have the right to request simultaneous interpretation subject to the conditions set out in R. 109 RoP.

An audio recording of the hearing will be taken. The recording will be made available to the parties or their representatives after the hearing on the premises of the court (R. 115 RoP).

There are currently no plans to implement an accreditation process. The seats will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, in order of arrival at the reception of the Court. No guarantee of a seat allocation can be given prior to the day of the hearing. Any press seats not allocated 10 minutes before the start of the hearing may be redistributed to the public. To ensure the calmness and quality of the proceedings, late entries to the courtroom will not be permitted once the hearing has begun, except in exceptional circumstances. Any photography or filming requires the prior permission of the President of the Hamburg Local Court as the holder of domiciliary rights. Reference is made to the Chairman's order on the conduct of meetings ("Sitzungspolizeiliche Anordnung") according to Rule 111 RoP dated May 22, 2024.
